You are privileged to be in the heart of what is called the "Planet's greatest Biosphere" and the World's floral kingdom. More forms of life than anywhere else on earth! Please appreciate, talk about it and respect it and realize it took many millions of years to get to this state. Don't buy poached species of marine life dead or alive or plants. Contact our tourism office for more info.

It must similarly be understood that each meal is freshly made to order with love and love is not rushed. Especially when we are busy.
